INTRODUCTORY

THIS is the 17th regular annual edition of Husted's Directory of Sacramento City and County. Since the issue of the last edition Mr. F. M. Husted died, on December 3, 1905, and the work which he established, with all the records and all the vicissitudes of such work, was left to me, his widow, and the business is now being conducted by me with a corps of able assistants.

Although most extraordinary difficulties were encountered in the production of this volume, yet a thorough system, with a competent force of experienced men, whose profession is directory making, have produced a directory of Sacramento second to none in America, not excepting the largest metropolitan directories.

Especial attention is called to many valuable features never before attempted in the West. The full christian name and middle initial of every individual is given. This directory shows, as it properly should, the exact occupation of every adult person; instead of using the term "emp" or employed, it shows exactly what the person does, and the place of employment or business, and the domestic relation of each person is also plainly shown, as for instance if the party be the head of a home his residence location is preceded by the letter "r," which stands for residence. If the party be merely a boarder, this fact is indicated by the letter "b" preceding the dwelling number. If the party be merely a lodger this fact is denoted by the term "rms." This new form of information will be highly appreciated by everybody in the community, especially by merchants who send out circulars or who extend credit.

The information for business houses shows definitel whether the business is carried on by a single individual, by a co-partnership, by a corporation, by a foreign house or through an agent, all of which is of vital interest to the community.

The canvass has been unusually thorough and complete and the data for every name has been proven by a double canvass, one of which secured information from the dwelling and the other from the place of business. Where the information thus obtained from the two sources did not agree special messengers were dispatched to both places to correct the conflicting facts; in addition the new information was carefully compared with the last edition of the directory and every name in the old book has been accounted for and the new directory shows whether the missing persons have died or have moved away, and in the latter cases the places to which they have moved is given.

All the information and experience gained in the publication by Mr. Husted during the past 17 years has been used to excellent advantage in the public tion of this volume.

Neither expense nor labor have been spared to make this directory comple accurate and reliable, and the unusual amount of patronage which the rectory clearly displays shows that this special care is appreciated and th the Husted Directory is highly popular.

With each recurring issue new features will be incorporated and the wor will be improved from year to year. A very useful and interesting feature a properly made directory is its certain index to population.

This volume contains 22,040 names, exclusive of Japanese and Chines which multiplied by 2½, the figure which is generally found to accurately rep resent the names of women and children who are not included in the directo canvass, indicates 55,100 as the present population of Sacramento, includin the adjoining suburbs. This is a most remarkable growth and must be highl interesting to all who are interested in the welfare of California's fair Capital

A complete Library of Directories from all the principal cities of the Unite States and Canada is being maintained by me in the Chamber of Commerc Building for the free use of my patrons and the general public, who can refe to it at any time. As the latest books are issued by the different publishers i the United States, they will be added to the library, thereby keeping it up-to date from year to year.

I beg to express my sincere thanks for the patronage bestowed upon th work and for the earnest support of the business houses of Sacramento in th trying ordeal. Respectfully,

MRS. F. M. HUSTED.

CAPITOL BUILDING AT SACRAMENTO.

SACRAMENTO CITY.

SACRAMENTO, the Capitol City of California and the County Seat of government of the County, is located on an extensive plain at the confluence of the American and Sacramento Rivers, on the east bank of the latter stream which flows along the west border of the County for about ninety miles. From Sacramento the River is navigable for light draught vessels as far north as Red Bluff, a distance of about one hundred and thirty-five miles, while its chief tributaries, the American and the Feather, with their feeders, drain the extensive mining and timber regions of the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

The first American who effected a settlement on the present site of the City was the famous California pioneer, Capt. John A. Sutter, who built the celebrated Sutter Fort in 1840, and his name must stand paramount whenever an authentic history of Sacramento is given. A native of Switzerland, he had become a naturalized citizen of Mexico and received an immense grant of land conditionally—that he found and maintain a permanent colony. Up to 1844 the Fort of Capt. Sutter constituted the principal trading post in Upper California and was the only absorbing point of interest in the then Mexican territory. In the same year, Capt. Sutter, with others, endeavored to build up a town three miles distant from Fort Sutter—in fact a survey was made and a village laid out which grew and flourished under the name of Sutterville, until about the time of the gold discovery early in 1848. This discovery gave a new impulse to life and trade, as then followed the unprecedented rush of immigration that so quickly populated California and forced it into the American Union before it had passed the customary period of territorial probation.

In December, 1848, the City of Sacramento was surveyed and laid out by Capt. Wm. H. Warner. The lesser needs of the village of Fort Sutter were now swallowed up in the greater needs of the City of Sacramento. In the mad rush for gold the fields were neglected. Capt. Sutter's company deserted him, his crops rotted for lack of harvesters, his property was swept away. Notwithstanding his loyalty and that through his generosity, the City of Sacramento came into possession of the strip of land lying between I and J, Ninth and Tenth Streets, known as the "Plaza," this noble soul passed away in comparative obscurity and poverty.

As proof of his sturdy republicanism and friendliness to his country, his Fort became the rallying point of the American, who, in 1846, had banded together as insurrectionists against the Mexican government. It was this little party of thirty-three men that captured the fortified town of Sonoma and struck the initial blow in the American conquest of the country. The mo disastrous event which threatened the prosperity and permanency of Sacra mento was the great fire of 1852, which, on the second day of Novembe swept away in a single night the results of many months of untiring labo

The energy of the young City, however, was not exhausted, but undaunte it arose from the ruins in greater proportion than before. It was destined receive another severe blow, for on the twentieth of December, 1852, it wa flooded by a twenty-foot rise of the Sacramento River occasioned by hea rains and the melting of the snow in the mountains, continuing thus un January 24th, 1853. Since that time, Sacramento has at different times su fered severely from fires, but the most serious calamity was the flood of 18 and 1862, causing damage to the City estimated at three millions of dollars.

To-day, by that indomitable energy and perseverance which characte izes the American people, Sacramento stands as one of the most importa and prosperious Cities of the Pacific Coast. It is the commercial, railroad an geographical center of Sacramento County, with an assessment roll o $38,830,665 against $37,180,623 of 1905. The City is thirty-one feet above th sea level. It is particularly well laid out, containing one hundred and for miles of wide straight streets—the streets in the residence sections bein beautifully shaded with arching trees and palms. There are numerous han some parks, that in which the Capitol is located being especially fine, coverin thirty-five acres and situated in the heart of the City, and containing tree shrubs and flowering plants from all parts of the world—an interesting fe ture being a grove of trees brought from the principal battle fields of o Civil War.

The artistic taste of Sacramentans is exemplified in its beautiful hom made picturesque by velvety lawns, dotted with noble and rare trees of th tropics, the orange, umbrella and palm, side by side with the Camellia Japoni and others of colder zones.

Sacramento is justly proud of its Crocker Art Gallery, a private collecti of paintings and statuary famed at home and abroad for its rarity. It is su ably housed in an imposing building, containing beside the gallery proper spacious music hall and banquet rooms. This was the gift of the late Mr Margaret E. Crocker and her husband, the late Judge Edwin B. Crocker, an is one of the points of interest of the City.

The Southern Pacific is now the principal railroad and may be termed th pioneer line, the present Company having grown out of the Sacramento Valle road and the Central Pacific. Sacramento is liberally favored with transporta tion facilities, having railroads running in five directions: the Central Pacif leads to the East, the California and Oregon reaches into the northern pa of the State and into Oregon and Washington, and the Western Pacific whic connects between Sacramento and the South and with the California Pacif two routes to San Francisco.

The mean annual temperature for years past has been 60.5°; the highe on any occasion was 104° and that only for a few hours in the day time, neve interrupting work. It is a dry heat with rapid evaporation and free radiatio and is more easily endured than 85° in the Eastern States. The nights ar always cool. There is an average of two hundred and forty-four cloudles days in the year. During the winter or rainy season, from November to May with the greatest precipitation in December, January and February, the temperature averages about 50°, and in December or January seldom falls below the freezing point of 32°.

Sacramento County, which ranks fifth among the Counties of the State, is located in the south end of the Valley, lying east of Salano and covers an area of nine hundred and sixty-eight miles or 619,520 acres, the surface being principally level, rising into hills to the eastward. The rich bottoms and lands of medium and fairly high elevation are watered by the Sacramento, American and Cosumnes Rivers and is an agricultural and fruit growing country, while there are in the neighborhood of twenty thousand acres of vineyards. In the eastern part citrus fruits and olive growing are important industries and show great development. Similar interests are rapidly increasing in other parts of the County. There are approximately seven hundred thousand fruit trees in the County and about eight thousand carloads of fresh fruits are shipped annually. The County ships ninety per cent of the fresh deciduous fruits shipped out of this State. In point of varied and abundant soil, Sacramento County fully holds her own with any other in the State, especially in the rare richness of the region immediately contiguous to the City. Florin, eight miles from the Capitol, is one of the greatest strawberry sections in the United States, eleven hundred tons being shipped annually, representing a market value of over a hundred and thirty thousand dollars. The hop crop is valued at about nine hundred thousand dollars annually and ninety-two thousand carloads of grapes are shipped each year. The southern portion of the County is an important center for wine grapes and is showing great development in this industry, although some of the finest table grapes are also grown in this section.

The banking statements show more business than any other City of its size on the Pacific Coast, and are steadily increasing. The wholesale and retail merchants report a constantly growing trade. Last year was a banner building year in Sacramento, but the promise now is that the present one will eclipse in new buildings any year of the past. In two years more Sacramento will be the hub from which will radiate three great railroads, and this fact, together with the marvelous showing of the surrounding country, establishes the conviction that Sacramento will double in wealth and population before the national census is taken.

A great feature of the City is the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, which, in fact, is the Sacramento Board of Trade, and which is alert to further every movement looking to the increasing prosperity of the City and Valley.
With its climate, its beautiful location, its transportation facilities, and above all else, the wealth of the surrounding country, Sacramento is the most favored spot between the seas, and holds out more certain promise of progress than any other city between the Mississippi and the Pacific.

PROPOSED NEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDING.

Wentworth Hospital
2615 Eye St.
Sacramento

Has been established seven years, is patronized by all the leading physicians of Sacramento and vicinity, and cares for medical, surgical and maternity cases. No contagious cases admitted.

Any reputable physician may attend his own patients here and will receive every professional courtesy. The Hospital is absolutely non-sectarian and has an established reputation for the excellence of its service, and the careful competent attendants furnished.

Our patients recover quickly because

The Hospital employs graduate nurses only; no training school; no beginners.

It occupys its own building, constructed for Hospital purposes; not a flat, not an old house fixed over.

It is quietly situated in a strictly residential section, with no factories near and no railroads.

It has its own artesian well and electric pumping plant, supplying pure, clear water for all purposes. No mud.

Rates from $10 per week up.

For particulars address the Chief Nurse or Resident Physician.

Both Phones 66.

HEALD'S

SCHOOL OF MINES and ENGINEERING

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

CIVIL AND MINING ENGINEERING

This department has been established to meet the demand for thorough instruction in mining and surveying that will be shorter than the university course of four years. The plan adopted, therefore, is to specialize so that those who wish can take up one subject only or as many as may be deemed advisable. Six months devoted exclusively to mining engineering will give the average student a full practical knowledge of the subject.

Any course or group of studies may be selected.

The CIVIL ENGINEERING COURSE includes: Geometry, Trigonometry, Draughting Strength of Material, Surveying, etc.

The MINING ENGINEERING COURSE includes: Assaying, Blowpipe Analysis, Mill Construction, Milling, Mining, Geology, Mineralogy, Economic Geology, Surveying.

The METALLURGICAL COURSE includes: Chemistry, Assaying, Metallurgy, Calorifics.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

The study and work in this department cover all the modern applications of electricity. The course is so condensed and divested of superfluities as to bring it within the time limit and means of the average young man who has to make his own way in the world.

The department is thoroughly equipped with Dynamos, Motors, Measuring Instruments, Wiring Appliances, Wheatstone Bridges, Telegraphic Instruments and Appliances, Electro-Medical Apparatus, Galvanic and Storage Batteries of all kinds, Fluoroscopes, X-ray closet and a large laboratory.—Send for Special Catalogue of this School.

NIGHT SCHOOL

To accommodate a large class of patrons who are unable to attend the day sessions, evening classes are conducted in all the departments the entire year. All the facilities and advantages of the day sessions are provided for these classes; the same studies, the same methods, the same practical work. The instruction is individual and every attention is given to those whose education has been neglected.

Business Houses needing Bookkeepers, Stenographers, Typewriters, Cashiers, Clerks, Foreign Correspondents, Telegraphers, Electricians, or Clerical Labor of any kind, can be immediately supplied.

E. P. HEALD, President

SUTTER HEIGHTS HOSPITAL

(INCORPORATED)

SITUATED ON SOUTHEAST CORNER OF TWENTY-FIRST AND T STREETS

LOCATED on Sutter Terrace, the highest ground in Sacramento City, this new Hospital will accept all cases for Medical or Surgical treatment, with the exception of contagious diseases. Any practitioner of good moral character, belonging to one of the recognized Schools of Medicine, is at liberty to treat his own patients here and every courtesy will be accorded him.

The location is unequaled, the high ground affording excellent drainage, the beautiful trees surrounding the Hospital providing a most delicious shade, while the ample lawns will prove a constant delight to the seriously ill and more especially to those convalescents who are able to walk about the premises.

The whole Hospital equipment is absolutely new. The operating room has been erected according to the latest dictum of science and is entirely up to date. The rooms are spacious, giving ample ventilation. Situated as it is, in the southern part of the City, the cool winds from the Bay reach it before they have filtered through the City, and the Hospital thus gets the benefit of this pure air.

With a corps of competent trained nurses, every effort will be made to give the suffering public a quiet, cheerful, comfortable home, where the most skillful medical and surgical treatment may be obtained.

The hospital is easily reached by the 21st Street cars, or by macadamized streets.
